from 30/April to September	Tokyo	Upon my arrival in Japan I plan to stay at my friend's house for the first day. Then I want to move to a Share House. For the first few weeks I intend to relax and enjoy my new surroundings. I also look for a language course at the local language schools to improve my Japanese. I think it is a good opportunity to get to know new people as well as getting information about the culture and the working world in Japan. Seeking for a part time employment is the next step. I would like to work in Tokyo for some months to save enough money for travelling. As there are beautiful areas near Tokyo I plan to do some sidetrips to Yokohama, Nikko, Kamakura and Hakone for instance.
from September to December	South Japan Okinawa, Kyūshū, Chūgoku, Shikoku, Kinki	My first part of my big round trip starts at the south of Japan. I like beautiful nature and swimming in the sea. Therefore Okinawa with its breathtaking beaches is the best location for it. But there are more interesting places in the South of Japan, which I would like to discover. Eating Japanese food at the famous food stalls in Fukuoka, having an impressing night view from Mount Inasayama, seeing the ancient forests of Yakushima and taking a boat trip trough Takachiho George.

		My trip should continue to cities in Chūgoku and Shikoku. Japan's most spectacular castle in Himeji is definitely worth to visit as well as the beautiful landscape garden in Okayama. Before heading to the small island Miyajima and its giant torii gate, I want to stop at Hiroshima and discover this historical city. Osaka is an important Japanese city and it would be a loss if I did not visit it. Next to Osaka there is also an important city. Kyoto is famous for its countless shrines and temples, which I have to see. At this point I will assess my finances to see if I am required to find work in this area or if I can continue travelling. Moreover I have to think about rebooking my return flight. from December to March	North Japan Chūbu, Kantō, Tōhoku, Hokkaidō	During my second part of the round trip I intend to discover mainly the north of Japan. It is very recommended to stay at one of the old farmhouses in Shirakawago, so I would like to have those experience too. I also want to stay at Nagano to see the many sightseeings which the city offers. Moreover I plan to see the hot spring bathing monkeys in Yamanouchi. I want to celebrate New Year's Day in Tokyo and stay there some days. Afterwards I plan to travel to Hokkaidō. During my trip I would like to stop at different places like Dewa Sanzan area, Zao or Matsushima. Winter is the perfect time to visit many places like Sapporo with its famous snow resorts as well as the stunning snow festivals. from March to April	Tokyo	At the end of my 12 months I will return to Tokyo before flying back to Germany.
